FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30 TO BE CELEBRATION DATE

Hallowe'en to be Observed Day Ahead of Time in Charleroi

CHANGE IS DEMANDED

Friday, October 30 will be the date of the Hallowe'en celebration in Charleroi. Committees in charge of the program for the celebration within the last day have decided upon the change of date from Saturday, October 31, to meet a demand from business houses and store folk. The same events planned for Saturday will take place on Friday.

A parade will be one of the leading features. It will take place in the evening beginning at 7 o'clock. It will be a fantastic affair, for which prizes will be awarded to the best dressed persons and the most comically dressed persons.

Preparations will be made to entertain a large crowd, which past experience has taught local people to expect. Up river as well as down river points will contribute their numbers. No definite announcement is forthcoming as yet concerning the plan of holding automobile contests on Friday afternoon as the initial effort of the celebration. Much sentiment has been expressed favorable to this movement and at least one local garage has declared itself in readiness for such contests.

SAYS BRUMBAUGH IS RIGHT MAN

To the Editor of the Charleroi Mail: I have waited with a great deal of anxiety for some one to write and explain to the laboring class the charges being made against certain candidates who are seeking office in our state. None of our labor leaders seem to take the initiative, so I have hunted up for my own satisfaction the records, and deem it necessary to make known to my friends and co-workers why we should hesitate before casting our ballots on November 3, and analyze who will give labor a fair hearing in the event of their election. Much has been said of the candidates of the Republican and Democratic ticket for the high office of governor. After a careful investigation I find that Mr. Brumbaugh, whose whole life has been given to educational work, mingling with the poor as well as with the rich and making a study of the conditions of both, would appear to be by reason of his experience a man to be trusted to give labor a fair hearing.

Now let us look at the other side and what do we find. Take McCormick's actions toward labor while acting in the capacity of Mayor of Harrisburg. He vetoed the ordinance to give day laborers $1.50 per day. Can such a man be trusted with this high office with the veto power of such tremendous importance? I say no. Let him stay at home and look after his non-union coal mines, of which he is an operator. Take the governor of Colorado, who is interested in those coal mines where a strike has been going on for two years. Why, the un-

Many Persons For Suffrage

Over 100 Enrolled as Members of Charleroi Equal Suffrage Organization

Over 100 names of men and women have been secured in Charleroi for the woman's suffrage organization, which has recently been formed. Mrs. John O'Neill, president of the Charleroi organization is working up the enrollment. The meeting of the county suffrage organization will be held on November 5 at Washington and the large enrollment here will entitle Charleroi to send four delegates.

STORIES OF SENSATION

One Reported to Have Taken Alcohol, Another to Have Fallen

Sensationalism seemed to have filled the air in Charleroi Friday afternoon. At least persons seemed intent in creating sensational stories. The first story leaked out just after noon. It was that a man had purchased wood alcohol at one of the drugstores and after drinking a quantity of the deadly liquid and being taken into captivity by the police had died in the borough lockup. The second story which was given out later in the afternoon was to the effect that some man, woman or child had fallen from one of the windows of one of the hotels of the town. No one seemed to know the particulars.

The first story was much the better story and was given with many dainty trimmings. According to the detailed narrative a man had gone into a Charleroi drugstore and purchased wood alcohol, and then gone up street determined to end all his earthly troubles. His wife followed him and after appealing to each person she met, was directed to Chief of Police Albright. She appealed to him and he crossing the street captured the man in the act of drinking the fatal fluid near the police station.

The foundation of the first story was not so bad, but no foundation can be found for the second. Chief of Police Albright arrested a man shortly before dinner, on Fallowfield avenue. He had just put him in jail when a woman came to him stating that her husband had purchased alcohol. She handed the chief a bottle two-thirds full of wood alcohol, and stating that she would return later left without giving names.

Persons going to the borough lockup to see if the arrested man was dead found him lying flat on his back with his mouth wide open and a noise similar to that of a cross-cut saw in a tough log, being emitted from the cell. That was all.

Charleroi Nimrods With Bears Attract Attention in Pittsburg

Courtesy of the Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph. These are the three Charleroi men who brought from Cameron county the first bears shot this season. The picture was taken for newspaper reproduction in Pittsburg and Kerfoot W. Daly, Tom P. Sloan and Harry W. Scott are pictured with their game. The fourth person in the group is an unknown, who stepped into vision just as the cameras were trained on the trio. The Charleroi nimrods were the first to bring bears into Pittsburg and attracted much attention.

SCARLET FEVER EPIDEMIC RAGES

Donora Health Officials Ask State to Help Control Disease

The health officials of Donora are still having their troubles with the scarlet fever epidemic and during the last ten days cases have been reported at the rate of one each day. At 407 McCrea avenue four out of seven children have contracted the dread disease and one death has occurred. In the rear of the building, 409 Market street, two out of three children in the family have scarlet fever. At the beginning of the week twenty-five cases were under quarantine. The officials have notified all parents that the greatest care should be taken not only in the boiling of water but as to the associates of their children as well as themselves.

The Board of Health realizing that the situation was beyond their control called a special meeting Wednesday morning in the office of the Health Officer and as a result telegraphed the State Health Department at Harrisburg asking that a representative of the state be sent out to assist in preventing the spread of the disease. The St. Charles parochial schools have been asked to close down for a short time until the rooms can be fumigated. Drastic measures may be taken by the officials if more precaution is not shown by parents and citizens of the town during the epidemic.

BIBLE CLASSES HOLD MASQUERADE SOCIAL WITH MISS RODGERS

The Frances Willard class of young women and the Good Will class of young men of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school held a masquerade social at the home of Miss Rosetta Rodgers in Fallowfield township on Friday evening. About 40 were present and the variety of costumes was extensive. Games and diversions of a Hallowe'en nature were features of the evening's entertainment. One of the most laughable occurrences was the unmasking.

Notice.
All Democrats are requested to attend a meeting of the Democratic Club to be held in Masonic Building, Tuesday evening, October 27 at 8 o'clock. Business of importance will come before the meeting.

FIVE ARRESTED FOR DRUNKENNESS

Burgess Woodward Hears Local Cases--Offenders Get Stiff Fines

Five men faced Burgess S. L. Woodward in police court this morning. John Ward answered to two charges. He was arrested at 11:30 o'clock Friday night when he and Harry Sphar had a fight on Fifth street. A little later he was released for a hearing this morning at 9 o'clock. About 12 o'clock he was again arrested at his home where he was breaking up the dishes and furniture.

When arrested the second time he resisted arrest. He was fined $1 and costs in the first case and $10 and costs in the second. He stated this morning that he bought a quart of whiskey Friday night about 12 o'clock, but refused to tell from whom he purchased it. He is not yet 21 years of age.

Harry Sphar, charged with being drunk and fighting was fined $1 and costs. He stated that he purchased half a pint alcohol from a Charleroi drugstore about 11 o'clock Friday night, after he had been refused by several of them.

Fred Skees arrested at 12:30 o'clock near the garbage furnace charged with drunkenness, was fined $1 and costs. Pat Ryan arrested at 12:10 Friday afternoon and Pat Donehue, arrested at 9:50 Friday evening, both charged with drunkenness were discharged. They both said that it was their first time to visit Charleroi.

TWO HAVE CLOSE CALL

Boy Struck by Automobile--Freight Man is Run Over

BOTH PURE ACCIDENTS

Two persons have had narrow escapes from serious injury in auto accidents in the last day. This morning Joseph Allshouse, aged 8 years was struck by an automobile driven by Fred Dreyer of Fayette City. Friday afternoon J. J. Sonnenlitter with his machine ran over Harry C. McCahey on McKean avenue.

The Allshouse boy who is the son of Oscar Allshouse of 437 McKean avenue was playing with a small bicycle on Washington avenue near Fifth street when he got in the way of the Dreyer car. He was under the auto when it was stopped. The driver stated that he was afraid to move fearing he would find the boy dead. The child got out from under the machine himself. He was cut on the cheek and about the mouth. He was badly bruised and frightened.

McCahey was struck by the machine of J. J. Sonnenlitter Friday evening about 5:30 o'clock, while he was unloading some freight from the Charleroi and Pittsburg Railway freight car on McKean avenue between Third and Fourth street. One knee was dislocated and a cut was made in his head. He was taken to his home in Pittsburg.

Mr. Sonnenlitter said he was running slowly along McKean avenue, that McCahey had just placed some freight on the curb, and turning around, McCahey caught hold of the freight on the curb, and turning slipped and he was thrown to the pavement, the car passing over one of his legs. The wound in his head was made when he struck the bricks.

KENTUCKY'S ILLITERATES.

The appointment of a commission to eliminate illiteracy from Kentucky sets an example to other states where the percentage of those who can neither read nor write is abnormally high. Dr. P. P. Claxton, federal commissioner of education, expresses the hope, says the Pittsburgh Gazette Times that the inspiration will be effectual and the campaign will continue "until the cure and shame of illiteracy have been lifted from every state in the union."

Kentucky, contrary to the popular notion is not so backward regarding education as many sister states, though the conditions there, particularly in the mountain districts, are deplorable enough. Her percentage of illiterates, 12.1, is less than half that of Louisiana and South Carolina, and is greatly exceeded by North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Arizona and New Mexico. Virginia, Florida, Tennessee and Arkansas have more illiterates than Kentucky in proportion to population. Illiteracy is, of course, most rampant in the Southern states, with their enormous negro population, which is quick and eager to learn but for which sufficient facilities have not been provided.

While the Northern and Eastern states lead generally in education, it is a state outside of this group which has the smallest proportionate number of illiterates. Iowa's percentage is only 1.7. Pennsylvania, with 5.9 despite its large number of foreigners maintains the record that would be expected from its acknowledged unexcelled system of public schools. New York's percentage, 5.5, New Jersey's 5.6 and Massachusetts, 5.2 are practically the same.

If it be true that Kentucky has enlisted in army of 1,000 volunteer teachers to bring light into the dark places, their task should not be an interminable one. There are about 208,000 illiterates in the state and no doubt most of them will welcome the opportunity to gain a little "book learning" when it is brought to their doors.

The question has been asked of me: "Why does W. B. Wilson, who hails from this state, go into other states to help elect Democrats to take office?" When Charleroi Citizens Show a Way
There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Charleroi citizen says:

Mrs. Thomas Christopher, 117 Lookout avenue, Charleroi, Pa., says: "About eight years ago one of the family did a lot of heavy lifting and strained his kidneys. He suffered severely from a dull, heavy ache across his back and he got so bad that he couldn't work. He was treated by doctors and tried various remedies, but didn't get much relief. The kidney secretions were discolored and caused much annoyance. He was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and he did so. The first few doses brought him relief and one box cured him. I have nothing to retract from the statement I gave, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills some time ago. You may continue using my name."

Do You Know

That there is an uprising all over the world against intoxicating drink?

That Russia has prohibited vodka throughout the empire and that the warring nations forbid alcoholic drink in the army?

That ten states of our Union have enacted prohibition laws and several more will vote on prohibition this Fall?

That Pennsylvania is the most backward state in the Union in temperance legislation.

That our Judge McIlvaine has said that our liquor law should be labeled "An Act to extend and encourage the consumption of intoxicating liquor among the disorderly classes?"

That notwithstanding our county has in it plenty of licenses and scores of illegal drinking places, that nearly all the illegal selling is promoted by the license holders?

That there is a continuous carnival of drunkenness, debauchery and crime in our county, beggaring a large portion of the population, injuring useful business, and costing the taxpayer enormous sums?

That already an amazingly large number of the police and magistrates of the county are in vena and political league with liquor dealers who aim to get the whole county in their irrevocable grasp?

That even one of our superintendents of schools takes orders for several thousands of dollars worth of beer each month?

Is this Pennsylvania Law? If so--then it ought to be changed. Will you help? or are you with the Rummies?

All over the state the fight is on for a temperance legislature. What kind of a delegation will Washington County send this time?

Messrs. Brownlee, Post and Carson were the pride of the temperance people in the last legislature. Will we send them back?

Mr. Stewart, candidate for the Senate, and master of the Pomona Grange, makes his position clear for temperance legislation.

Will you vote for them or for J. Add Sprowls, Vice President of the Donora Brewing Company and Messrs. Hallam, Baker and Myers who are non-committal to the temperance people, but who are backed by the liquor people.

Which Side Are You On In This Struggle?

Smite Penrose, who is the leader and the idol of the Liquor gang in our state

WAR BULLETINS

Paris, Oct. 24.--The French have abandoned by the reserve corps of the captured Altkirche, upper Alsace, at Prussian guard in its hasty retreat the point of bayonet. Three German batteries were taken by the Germans in the trenches below Ivangorod. The Austrian army continues to fight with stubbornness on the Vistula, on the San being made to cut through what is, now the right center of the German line, with the object of driving a wedge in behind the army of General von Kluck, enveloping him from the south and turning his left flank, command by Von Boehm; back upon the rear of Von Kluck's main position in front of Roye. The German center position has been greatly weakened.

Berlin, Oct. 24.--The Germans gained successes on the Yser canal. Their troops advanced to the south of Dixmude. West of Lille the Germans were successful, having taken several villages. The western frontier is generally quiet.

Petrograd, Oct. 24.--An official dispatch says that the Russian troops crossed the Vistula without encountering any resistance. Large quantities of war stores and ammunition were taken by the reserve corps of the captured Altkirche, upper Alsace, at Prussian guard in its hasty retreat the point of bayonet. Three German batteries were taken by the Germans in the trenches below Ivangorod. The Austrian army continues to fight with stubbornness on the Vistula, on the San being made to cut through what is, now the right center of the German line, with the object of driving a wedge in behind the army of General von Kluck, enveloping him from the south and turning his left flank, command by Von Boehm; back upon the rear of Von Kluck's main position in front of Roye. The German center position has been greatly weakened.

London, Oct. 24.--An effort is being made to round up nine German cruisers at large in the Atlantic, Pacific and Indian oceans. These cruisers include the Emden, which has sunk or captured 20 British vessels to date in the Indian ocean and the Karlsruhe, which has taken 13 British ships in the Atlantic ocean. Searching for these vessels and working in concert under various commanders-in-chief are upwards of 70 British, Australian, Japanese, French and Russian cruisers, not including auxiliary cruisers.

Paris, Oct. 24.--Two German aeroplanes on their way toward Paris were routed by a squadron of French machines.
